

DAILY PRAYER
(for the week of May 1 - 7)

O God,

We offer prayers as we come to your table. Your grace is more than abundant, and we are grateful beyond what we can measure. We have no words adequate to the occasion, so our hearts themselves rise and our lives themselves are offerings of profound gratitude.

We would confess our sins, but the litany would never end; so we confess, instead, our sinful condition.

Everything about us is twisted so that it cannot appear as it should. Yet, you take that appearance with us. You come so far to set us free! Amen.
