Rev. Rainer Richter was born in Maine, but raised in Miami, Florida. He graduated from Asbury College in 1973 with a BA degree in Biology/Secondary education. He and his wife, Sheila have served churches in Miami Springs, and Ormond Beach before coming to St. Peter's United Methodist Church of Wellington, Florida, where he served as Senior Pastor for over 22 years.

"...Surf Shack: Catch the Wave of God's Amazing Love ... fits the bill for a perfect beach-themed getaway for kids to bask in the love of the Son and come away with an understanding of God's awesome power. ... Kids ... will encounter God's awesomeness through Bible stories of the amazing ways God has moved in the lives of others before embarking on the breathtaking adventure of participating in God's love. [VBS] will become an ocean of excitement as kids and leaders (Surfers and Lifeguards) enjoy beach-themed music, crafts, Science projects, recreation, Bible stories and more, becoming fully equipped to live out God's mission in their lives. ... Throughout the adventure, children will learn how:

- God created the world to show God's love for us in a truly epic way.
- God helps and protects us in amazing, unexpected ways. With God's help, we can also help others.
- Jesus is God's Son, loved by God. And the evidence of God's amazing love for us is that we get to receive and be part of God's love.
- God can bring peace to any situation and calm our fears, even when things aren't going well.
- God wants to show love through us. Jesus invites us and sends us to participate in this amazing experience."
