

2012
BIBLE READING
PLAN

For

Huffman Baptist Church

Dear Members of Huffman Baptist,

I am excited that we will continue to read the Scripture together as a congregation. During 2011 we read through all of the New Covenant (New Testament). This year we are going to read much of the Old Covenant (Old Testament). I am confident that God will bless us as we read His Eternal Word.

If you wonder why we won't be reading the entire Old Covenant, that day will come during 2013... God willing. During 2012, the plan will be a little more nuanced so that you aren't overwhelmed with the amount to be read each day.

My reasoning is that I want you to have more time for reflection, meditation, and rumination upon what you read. I prefer for us to desire to understand more fully what we read rather than be consumed with finishing a certain number of chapters so as to not get behind.

I have also chosen to have our readings in a little different order for several reasons. First, you'll notice we're going to finish reading the chapters of Psalms we didn't get to in 2011. Second, you'll see that I kept two books together... the only two that bear women's names (Esther & Ruth). Then, you'll also recognize that December is designed completely to meditate upon the Messianic Prophecies and fulfillment. Last, there was a time or two that the number of chapters fit with the number of days in a month... so I placed them there for convenience sake (October for Proverbs).

My prayer is that you will draw closer to our Lord as you read through His Word. Be sure that as you read you prayerfully ask Him to reveal His truth to you.

Blessings,

Ron
