We are the Voice for Jesus

I've spent much of this semester stressing to the Youth to "use your words." What a monumental request! I don't know many adults who use their words, me included. I try but constantly struggle with what to say, often thinking of the right thing long after the conversation. People talk to me all of the time, and though I know they're hiding what they really want to say, we carry on as though the hidden-truth doesn't exist. It eats away at my soul, and though I don't like it, I'm just as guilty of the "carry-on-and-ignore-the-problem" attitude as anyone else.

Why is it so hard to use our words? Are we afraid that we will make ourselves too vulnerable? Are we afraid we're wrong? Are we ignorant of the words that would accurately capture the ideas in our head? It's probably a bit of all three and I am alright with each explanation; but what I find bothersome is that we find it all-too-easy to replace the words we refuse to use with words that hurt and destroy relationships - I hate this, and I hate that, and you're a threat, and you've got to go, and you have to do it my way, and etc. etc. etc.

Where are we to find strength? As Dr. Ron Williams suggests in his commentary on Philippians (I got a sneak peek!), we must press on, looking for the little ways Christ works in our lives. What I've recently found is the Youth making goodie bags for Thursday night attendees, making and delivering flower arrangements to nursing homes, and the growth and leadership of some of our Youth. Though they often test me, I am quite proud of them. See, I can use my words! I challenge you to use your words this week. Speaking of someone who can use words, here's a little from Bob Dylan's song "Pressing On."

Shake the dust off of your feet,
don't look back.
Nothing now can hold you down,
nothing that you lack.

Well, I'm pressing on Yes, I pressing on
Well, I'm pressing on
To the higher calling of my Lord.

Jan Lampkin, Minister to Children

"Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old, he will not depart from it." Proverbs 2:6

Fall is here! The Church picnic was a blast! The kids enjoyed the wagon rides, the bounce house, walking the trails, "Santa" making balloon animals and lots of good fun and food! It is always one of the special times for the children. We had 74 children and youth and they had fun!

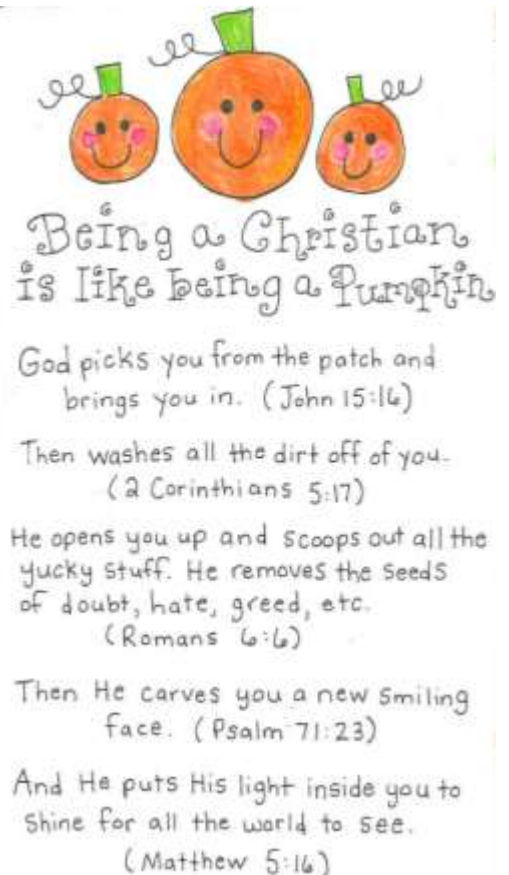

The Annual Fall Festival is Wednesday, October 31, 2018. We will have chili and hot dogs in the Fireside Room from 5:00-5:45 p.m. The festival will take place in the gym from 5:30-7:00 p.m. Thanks to all that have provided candy for the festival, however, we still need more! There is a sign up sheet on the atrium desk for the cake walk (the most popular spot at the festival.) Cakes, cookies, brownies, or anything you wish to bring will be greatly appreciated. We need adults to help us from 5:30 till 7:00 p.m. I promise to place you at a booth that requires little activity. Let me know if you can help at the festival!

I ran across this the other day and would like to share.

I hope you will take time to reference the scripture that accompanies the statement. It is a great devotion.

Remember to pray for our children and their families and the volunteers that work with them.

EDGEWATER GRILL

From brick oven pizza, shrimp dishes, fresh seafood, steaks, pastas, to sandwiches, many other specialty items, and desserts to swoon over. Everything is always made fresh, just for you!

Adults 55 and over will gather at the church at 10:45.

Contact Ron Williams at 774-692-9267 and let him know you're on board for this outing! Old Newburgh is filled with wonderful shops to start your Christmas shopping, or take a stroll along the beautiful Ohio River.

Here's something I found on the Internet I thought you might enjoy:

Music is deeply rooted in our souls. And for followers of Jesus, it is a powerful means of encouraging each other along the journey of faith. Paul urged the believers in Colossae, "Let Christ's teaching live in your hearts, making you rich in the true wisdom. Teach and help one another along the right road with your psalms and hymns and Christian songs, singing God's praises with joyful hearts" (Col. 3:16 Phillips).

Singing together to the Lord embeds the message of His love in our minds and souls. It is a powerful ministry of teaching and encouragement that we share together. Whether our hearts cry out, "Create in me a pure heart, O God" (Ps. 51:10), or joyfully shout, "And He will reign forever and ever" (Rev. 11:15), the power of music that exalts God lifts our spirits and grants us peace.

I hope to join with you singing this Sunday!

Life Line Screening will host preventative health screenings at TBC on Monday, November 12. Ultrasound screenings to identify risk factors for cardiovascular disease include: carotid artery, abdominal aortic aneurysm, peripheral arterial disease, heart rhythm screening; and osteoporosis risk assessment for men and women. Being proactive about your health by knowing your risks helps you and your doctor address problems early.

A $10 off Friends and Family Savings Coupon is available on the atrium desk. Be sure to pick one up before you make your appointment. ### Joe Bob Pierce Formations

As you read this, the cast and crew of the musical version of Little Women is putting the final touches on the production, which will run Thursday, October 11 through Sunday, October 14. I was lucky enough to get cast in the show, which is why I have been growing a beard the last two months. I can't really say that I like the beard, but I do like the way that a team of gifted people can put together a musical theater performance that is uplifting and inspiring.

But I also want to say that part of the 'gifted people' I am talking about is the membership of Third Baptist Church! TBC has been a home for Encore Musicals, the group producing Little Women, for over a year. Encore holds rehearsals here, stores props here, and uses TBC as a home base for practically everything. I hope you can come see Little Women this weekend. And if you get to meet some of the cast after the show, let them know you're from Third Baptist Church. They'll be even more glad to meet you!
